SEX POSITION BINGO RULES

This is a fun game to play that is easy, fast and it will keep your guests entertained. It is also hilarious, did I mention that?

Be warned

THIS GAME IS NOT FOR THE FAINT-HEARTED
OR YOUR GRAN! It's X-Rated

Unless your Gran is cool, then please include her

"SEX Position" Bingo features pictures that involve sex positions that you may or may not know.
Who knows, your guests may learn some new moves and you will spark some peoples sex lives!

This game is great for all different types of adult parties and game nights. Celebrate Bridal events, girls weekend away's, birthday and sex toy buying parties.

You will not believe what positions the guests know and don't know!

Have a great party,
thank you for allowing me to be part of your day
Brooke xo

Instructions to play

Print out 1 set of the SEX Position Bingo sheets for the guests to use. There are 20 sheets total of randomly selected sex positions. If you want to play more rounds you can print again.

This version is for adults only. You can play in teams, couples or individuals. The maximum number of teams or players are 15 at any one time.

Have lots of pens ready for people to play with. The host hands out the picture bingo sheets to the guests and can make a short announcement, something like this "Attention Friends, our next game will be a wicked game of Sex Position Bingo! Simply listen out for your pictures to be called and circle the matching picture. Once you circle 4 pictures in a row you call out "ORGASM" to win, Now Let's Play!"

The host calls out pictures randomly from the 2 game picture sheets until a player or team call out "ORGASM" or select a different word you want to use. The host also circles the pictures to keep track of what has been called out.

TIP - Throw the sheets in a plastic sleeve or laminate them. Then mark the sheets with a dry-erase marker and you have yourself a reusable game!

The winning card must have 3 in a row across ways or diagonal. The winner can be awarded a prize or the certificate that comes with this game. There is a blank section on the award to write the name or team.

Have a great party,
Thank you for allowing me to be part of your day
Brooke xoxo
